Petition For Credit By Examination or CLEP exam

A petition for credit by examination is any test that your student is taking in lieu of a traditional course. Credit is awarded by the College Board of education and will be reflected on your students High School transcripts when they graduate. If your student decides to take any CLEP exam to be awarded duel enrollment (earning college and high school credits concurrently) they should note that incompletion or failure of any test will result in 0 credit awarded.
